

ALC/VPC STUDENT PARTICIPATION IN GRADUATION ACTIVITIES

Any student who requests permission to enroll in an alternative program at the ALC/VPC and the student receives parent and principal approval, the student will also be granted the privilege of participating in his/her home school graduation activities. These students will be required to:

Submit formal application by February 1.

- A. Meet all graduation requirements and regulations required of all graduating seniors of the home school.
- B. Participate in all activities relating to the commencement ceremony.
- C. Receive official verification from the ALC/VPC principal that all requirements for graduation have been successfully met.

Note: Students placed in the ALC/VPC for disciplinary reasons and in accordance with due process procedures forfeit the privilege of participating in the home school graduation activities.
