

ACT Test Prep Opportunities 2018-2019

Throughout the year, students have multiple opportunities to take free practice ACT exams. Here are some resources to get you started.

ACT Testing at Each High School:

A practice ACT test is scheduled for all sophomores and juniors on October 8. Each building will be giving the practice test during the school day. Registration is not required. Results will be returned in Advisory.

The official ACT test will be given on to Juniors on April 2 during the school day. Registration is required and students will register for this test at school during Advisory.

Anoka County Library: (Library card required for access)

Go to the Anoka County Library webpage and select the Learning Express from the Research/Online Databases menu. Use the practice materials found in the College Prep Center. Includes ACT, SAT, and AP test prep options.

March2Success:

The US Army has teamed with Petersons and College Options Foundation, to offer practice tests, flashcards and games to help students prepare for college entrance exams. They offer 7 full length practice tests for both the SAT and ACT. Each section of the practice test is timed and scored just like the real test. When a section is completed, students can review their test and see detailed explanations of each problem. Ask for more information in the Career Center.

ACT Academy: ACT

Through video lessons, interactive practice questions, full-length practice tests, educational games, and other materials targeted to your academic needs, ACT Academy provides you with a personalized study plan. Go to the Test Prep section at act.org to set up your free account.

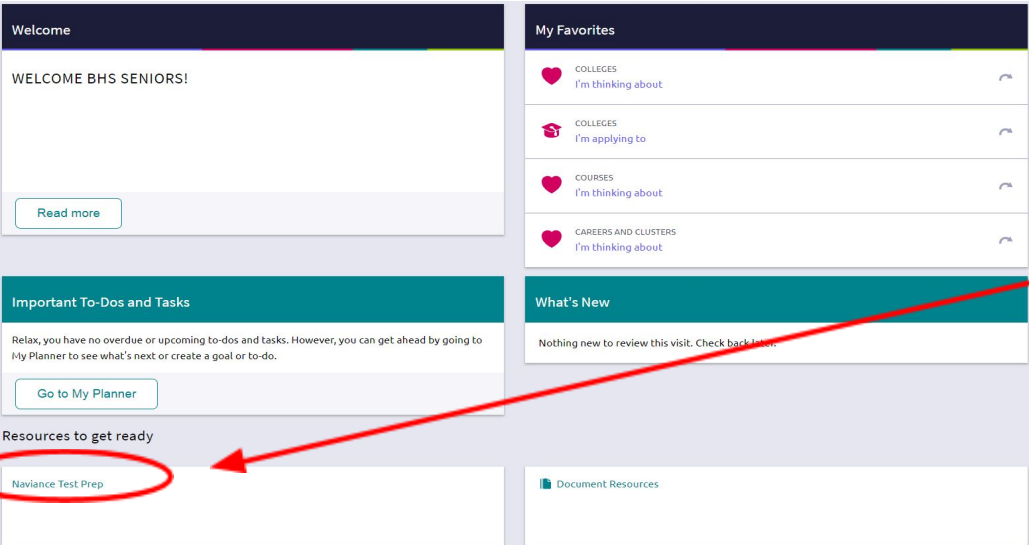

Anoka-Hennepin Community Education:

Check out the Community Education catalog for PrepStar ACT prep courses.

Naviance Test Prep:

Naviance offers free personalized ACT test preparation. Students take a pre-test and the results are used to create a weekly learning plan based on the designated test date. Instructions can be found on the Career Center webpage in the Test Prep section.
