Principal Report:

Amy Oliver – Students are finishing STEM fair projects and starting test practice

Treasurer Report:

Lisa Formo reviewed the budget with us. We got a Box Top check for $794.40! A special donation of $330 was given towards the Student Need Fund.

Volunteer Services Coordinator Report:

Donna Riberich – Skill Builder Training, STEM fair judges for 4th and 5th grade, 2nd issue of the Gearzette is being worked on, Conference Meals 21st, 23rd and 27th of February, Celebrity Reader Day will be February 28th. The Book Fair will during conference nights.

Guest Speaker:

Mary Olson came in to talk to us about the Anti-Bullying/Anti-Harassment Task Force in the 24 elementary schools. The task force was formed in 2012.

Old Business:

A January ice skating event won't work at the CAC because of the amount of hockey going on right now. There may be a possible game night in the gym in February. Donna will do the Northern Stars Auction Basket again this year. The dinner will be on February 11th with entertainment and a silent auction. The Schwan's Cares Fundraiser has brought in $160 so far in the first 6 weeks and runs through March 20th with the school getting 5% back.

New Business:

A possible game night in the gym in February (TBD)
CPHS Scholarship - $600.00 scholarship donation goes to a former Monroe student.
Jessica Fabb is going to check with the library to get information for a future library event.

Upcoming Events:
