Math:

We have completed Unit 1 and will begin Unit 2 that covers place value up to the hundred millions as well as collecting data and then analyzing it.

Science/Health:

Health continues this week with topics of our families and friendships. We will be using various books to help us learn about feelings related to friendships. This connects to our theme, "No Middle Line."

Reading:

We continue to work on a combination of reading/writing unit of literacy response. Read alouds and read-to-self time will occur everyday.

Writing:

Literary essay is our first unit of study.

Social Studies:

We finished the Five Themes of Geography. Our next unit of study on the Northeast Region will begin soon.

Spelling:

Unit 2 words will go home on Wed., 9/17. The test will be Tuesday, 9/23. We will work with the words in class but studying at home is very important.

Grade 4 - Tale of Two Cities UnitHELLO!! My name is Cindy Carlson and I am privileged to be your child's research teacher. We meet for research class once a week for one hour. It is a special, similar to the Inquiry class your child had last year. During our first unit, we will learn about technology and the research process as we investigate and write about the cities of Seattle and Phoenix.
