

AH INDIAN EDUCATION

VIRTUAL SPEAKER SERIES

empowering families, amplifying indigenous voices

LIVE VIDEO PREMIERE
MARISA CUMMINGS DEC 8 7 PM

Watch Here

Marisa Cummings (Miakonda) is Umonhon and belongs to the Buffalo Tail Clan of the Sky people as well as the Walker and Springer families. She holds a BA in American Studies from the University of Iowa and MA in Tribal Administration and Governance from the U of MN Duluth. Marisa is the President/CEO of the Minnesota Indian Women's Resource Center and is dedicated to indigenous models of governance, education, food systems, ceremonies, and sovereignty. She teaches knowledge rooted in matriarchy and advocates for dismantling systems of oppression that impact our Native communities,

LIVE DISCUSSION
DELINA WHITE DEC 15 7PM

Register Here

Delina White is a Native Apparel Designer, Beadwork Artist and Indigenous Materials Jewelry Maker and a proud member of the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe living on the Leech Lake Reservation. She is the founder and owner of "IamAnishinaabe," a Native woman-owned business built on the traditional philosophy of living a good life; traditional values rooted in the belief of love for oneself, human kind and our mother earth. Delina approaches art as a way to wear the pride, dignity and distinction of the original Great Lakes and Woodlands people.

