

Monologue Project

Assignment

You are to write, revise, rehearse, memorize, and then perform an original monologue. You will receive three sets of points on this project; the rough draft presentation, the final draft presentation and lastly your overall effort and use of in-class work time.

Requirements

- Your monologue can be a short story or can be as if it is a character speaking from a full-length play. It should not be a stand up comedy bit that is simply a series of jokes.
- Brainstorm ideas for your monologue.
- Write the monologue (it should be written in script format).
- Present your rough draft in performance form. This means with blocking and character changes (voice, body, movement) but does not have to be memorized.
- Take the feedback from the teacher and classmates and revise/re-work your monologue.
- Perform your final version with character (voice, body, movement) and memorized.
- It can be serious, comedic or a little of both.
- YOU CANNOT IMPROVISE YOUR MONOLOGUE
- Must be a minimum of 2 minutes but not more than 4 minutes.

Due Dates

1. _____ present rough draft version of monologue to class.
2. _____ present final version of monologue to class - MEMORIZED
