

Reference Point Study Paper

You will need to know all the information on this study paper to be proficient on your retake.
Some ideas to help you study: highlight, underline, make flashcards, rewrite the information, have someone quiz you, etc.

What is motion?

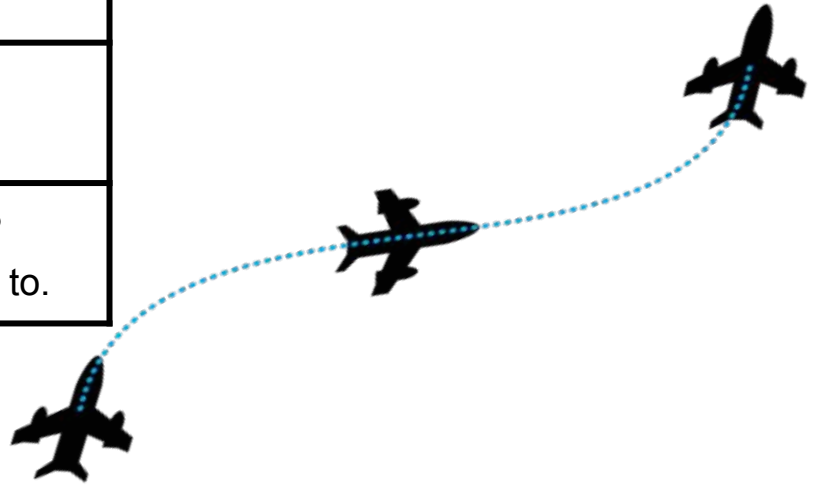

The change of position over time.

What is position?

The location of a place or object.

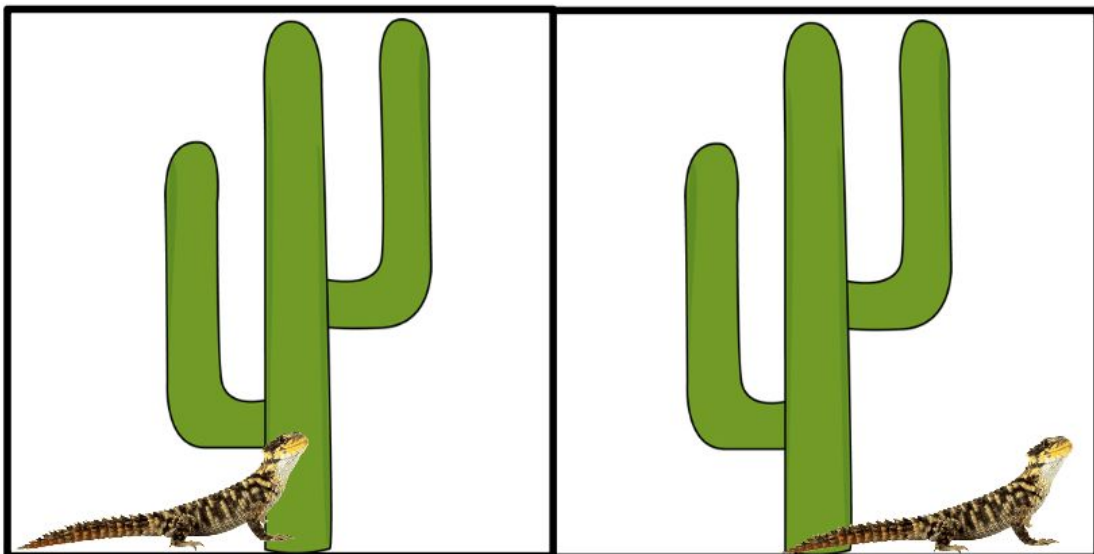

What is a reference point?

A location you compare other locations to.

Look at the picture below.

Read the sentences to understand motion, position, and reference point.

The cactus is the reference point.
The lizard is in motion because it changes position.