

Name _____

Hour _____

Daily Questions for the Intro Unit

Right	Wrong	← Did you get the question right the first time? <input type="checkbox"/> Shade the correct box <input type="checkbox"/> Restudy the ones you got wrong for that weeks quiz	Answers: <input type="checkbox"/> First you try <input type="checkbox"/> Then use resources if needed (map, book, notes, vocab sheet) <input type="checkbox"/> Finally fix it with RED when answer is given in class
		1. List all Seven Continents.
		2. List all the Oceans.
		3. Where do you turn assignments in?
		4. What 5 materials do you need in class everyday?
		5. What is the name of the line found at 0° longitude?
		6. What hemispheres is Antarctica in?
		7. Describe the temperate zones.
		8. What are the coordinates for St. Paul, use the red atlas page 35?
		9. If it is summer in Tokyo, what season is it in Melbourne?

		10. If it is noon in MN, what time is it in Los Angeles?
		11. If it is fall in MN, what season is it in Tokyo, Japan?
		12. What is the GDP for Bangladesh and Japan? Which country is wealthier?
		13. Which country from your graphs is most crowded?
		14. Explain why Greenland looks bigger than Africa on some maps?
		15. If the life expectancy of a country is 35, what are 2 things you can assume about that country?
		16. What statistic would go with free education system? Who in Latin America might have to pay for education?
		17. Use maps on pages 546-557, what continent is most densely populated?
		18. Use page 32-33 (purple book), if it is 8 pm in MN, what time is it in England?
		19. Use maps on 546-557. What city has broadleaf evergreen forest, arid climate, is on a river, and has over 8,000,000 people? Rio de Janeiro, Bagdad, Alexandria, or Cairo	