2nd Grade Value - creating a shade

Using watercolor you are going to create a shade using a color of your choice then add black to that color. To make light shades you will use more color and a little black. To make a dark color you will add more black. Black is a really strong color so a little goes a long way.